

6th Annual High Performance Building Seminar - Call for Sponsors

Date: October 5, 2017

Location: Sharonville Convention Center

Seminar Overview

The seminar is designed to discuss the advantages of high performing and healthy buildings and address what works when tackling major improvements in operating practices in buildings. The seminar focuses on the challenges faced from the views of both the architecture and engineering community and will include keynote speakers from world class firms, real world case studies, and informative panel discussions. The seminar will offer attendees a personal exchange of high performance buildings best practices. The target audiences include: Corporate Executives, Architects, Engineers, Facilities Managers, Construction Managers, and Project Managers.
