EIGHTH ANNUAL
High Performance
BUILDINGS
SEMINAR

THURSDAY,
OCTOBER 3, 2019
Sharonville Convention Center

The 8th Annual High Performance Buildings Seminar is a Midwest regional conference intended to discuss Midwest business sustainability issues and potential solutions from across the nation. This is a forum that will help those engaged to reach a more sustainable and resilient world faster by sharing inspiring, real world stories and data driven positive outcomes. This year, the seminar will continue to explore new and exciting high performance building topics, while also taking a deeper look into the business case for sustainability.

Complement your business' marketing program by increasing your visibility as an official High Performance Building Seminar Sponsor. Numerous opportunities are available at different levels, including the opportunity to sponsor breakfast, lunch, or a booth sponsor. You will engage with a high-level audience and gain recognition from our region's High Performance Building Community.
